Parents please purchase these materials and uniforms before the start of the year. These materials are very important to your child's success in music education. Any child not dressed in concert attire will not be allowed to perform during concerts. Thank you for your cooperation and continued support of the South Loop Fine and Performing Arts Department.

Please check the general/choral music website nranders@weebly.com for assignments, upcoming events, syllabi, classroom expectations and any other arts department information.

Musically Yours,
